The Market Letter

Kansas City Stock Yards, August 2, 1915. The cattle market picked up a little after Tuesday last week, and sales today are steady with the close of last week, 10 to 20 cents above a week ago. Receipts were 11,000 today, but as few cattle came after Tuesday last week, buyers were in a receptive mood, needing material, although they tried to make a slow market out of it today. There were practically no prime cattle here, owners rebelling at the treatment they got last week, and it is certain that ten dollars or more will be paid for the first good cattle to come. Some extra heavy steers from Southern Kansas, weighing around 1800 lbs. brought $9.60, very fat. Some fancy heifers sold at $9.50. Kansas pasture steers brought $7.80 to $8.90 today, most of them at $8.30 to $8.50, some plain horned steers at $7.75. The trade was again featured with long distance shipments, 11 cars of good Oregon cattle selling at $8.25 to $8.35, 1200 to 1275 lbs average, and 25 cars of five year old California alfalfa steers brought $7.85, about like the train of same cattle here last Thursday at $7.90, but a little lighter, 1250 lbs average. Plain fleshy feeders, 1150 to 1250 lbs, sold at $8.15 and $8.30, and some steers suitable for a quick finish in the feed lot sold to killers at $9. Stock steers sell up to $8.25, bulk at $7 to $7.75. Quality of stockers and feeders is improving, the supply is larger, and there is an immense demand developing. In the quarantine division 112 cars arrived, and sold steady to weak. Some good fed steers from North Texas sold in the Quarantine Division, at $8 to $8.60, Oklahoma grass fed steers largely at $6 to $7.25. Hogs sold 5 to 10 higher today, receipts only 3500 head. Tops sold at $7.32 1/2, bulk to order buyers, packers paying $7.27 1/2, bulk of sales $6.60 to $7.25. The supply here has been light for a week, but Omaha and Chicago have been getting good runs. The statement has been made in some quarters that the common price for hogs will go to six dollars in view of evidences at hand that hog raising is now on a large scale, and with fewer disease losses than formerly. Sheep and lambs made good gains last week, and are stronger today, receipts 3000 head, all natives. Lambs sold at $8.75 today, but strictly prime Westerns would bring $9 to $9.15. Ewes are selling up to $6.75, breeding ewes $7.25, feeding lambs worth around $7.75. Three loads Idaho yearlings sold here last week at $6.65 to killers, and three loads to feeder buyers at $6.65.
